

Rewrite the sentences using the given structure

PASSIVE VOICE

1. The doctor gave the patient a prescription.

The patient was given a prescription

A prescription was given to the patient

2. They are going to change his treatment.

His treatment is going to be changed

3. Scientists have just discovered a new gene.

A new gene has just been discovered

4. Scientists will soon find a cure for cancer.

A cure for cancer will soon be found

5. Plastic is destroying our oceans.

Our oceans are being destroyed

RELATIVES

1. Sam was very organised. That was an advantage.

Sam was very organised, which was an advantage.

2. The employer sacked the man. He had stolen some of the company's money.

The employer sacked the man who /that had stolen some of the company's money.

3. They organised a meeting in Edinburgh. It's the capital of Scotland.

They organised a meeting in Edinburgh, which is the capital of Scotland.

4. Jim is studying Chinese. He needs it for his job.

Jim is studying Chinese. He needs it for his job.

5. The man got the job. He had a lot of experience.

The man who/that got the job had a lot of experience.

The man, who had a lot of experience, got the job.

REPORTED SPEECH

1. "Will the flight be delayed?" Jill asked.

Jill wanted to know if the flight would be delayed

2. "Please turn off your mobile phones now!"

The air hostess told them to turn off their mobile phones then

3. "Why don't you like the accommodation?"

She asked Peter why he didn't like the accommodation.

4. "These views are breath-taking!"

She said (that) those views were breath-taking

5. "Don't visit this area late at night," the tour guide warned the tourists.

The tour guide warned the tourist not to visit that area late at night

CONDITIONALS

1. Don't go out in the rain because you'll get wet.

If you go out in the rain, you'll get wet

2. I can't meet my girlfriend because I have to study.

If I didn't have to study, I could meet my girlfriend.

3. I didn't go to see Helen because I didn't know she was in hospital.

If I had known Helen was in hospital, I would have gone to see her.

4. There are too many cars. As a result, our planet is polluted.

If there weren't so many cars, our planet wouldn't be polluted.

5. Girls don't talk to you because you never smile.

Girls would talk to you if you smiled.